British Colonist: March 24, 1868	Relatives of an Indian who is waiting trial may have wanted revenge on Robinson	No reason why Natives might want revenge on Robinson; Indicated that Robinson's gun, clothes, and books were missing	Perhaps theft was the motive, not revenge; Would Native people have been able to read or otherwise have need for Robinson's books?	Possible trial bias. If the jury read this newspaper account they might be influenced in their thinking before the trial began
